

Here is a list of information for you and your attendees. Please respond ASAP for each item.

Attendees in or retired from the military

To recognize Veteran's Day, we would like to honor any past or present military members during the Conference. If you have any veterans attending, please send a photo and their name to Carol directly at kook4christ@yahoo.com.

A photo release is needed for any photos to be printed or posted.

Please share this form at your next meeting—then email a copy to me or Stacey Wilson so that we can have photos and blog updates posted throughout the weekend!!

Nametags & roommates

Watch for an email with your rooming list attached so that you can verify all of your attendees are in the correct rooms and that their names are spelled correctly!! The nametags will be made from this list!!!

Share this information with all attendees:

- Visit www.windermereusa.com for site details
- Roll Call during our first meeting Thursday night!! Are you practicing??
- There will be an optional reception after our meeting on Thursday night
- Banquet theme: Jeans & Jewels –have fun with your outfits!!
- Wireless access is available at the gift and snack shops as well as Lake View Lodge
- Cell phone reception is limited
- The Edge can be made available for $13/person during free time (get back to me ASAP if you have anyone who might be interested in this option!!)
- Do not plan on leaving campus during conference! This time is designed to be sacred, a holy time apart for God—to grow closer to Him and learn more about ourselves in Him. Thank you for understanding and setting an example.

Some recent FAQs

- How do chaplains pay?? Chaplains and others attending TDY will pay at the Conference Center. Their cost is for room and meals.
- When does the conference start and end?? Check in Thursday 3-5pm; Sunday service done by 11am. Schedule will be released after 15 Oct. Thank you for your patience!!
- Will we be able to register for workshops?? Workshop schedule will be released after 15 Oct, there will be no pre-registration.
